TWO PEAS in a BUCKET

STORE DIGITAL FORUMS GALLERY DESIGN TEAM CLASSES & EVENTS VIDEOS BLOG

IT IS WITH A HEAVY HEART THAT WE ANNOUNCE THE CLOSING OF TWO PEAS IN A BUCKET.

IT HAS BEEN A GREAT PLEASURE TO SERVE THE SCRAPBOOKING AND PAPER CRAFTING COMMUNITY FOR THE LAST 16 YEARS. WE HAVE LOVED BEING A PART OF THE DEEP AND DIVERSE GROUP THAT HAS FORMED DURING OUR TENURE.

WE HAVE HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO MEET SO MANY PEOPLE THROUGH THIS COMMUNITY AND IT HAS BEEN WONDERFUL HAVING THEM ALL IN OUR LIVES. BEING A PART OF SO MANY PEOPLE'S DAILY LIVES HAS BEEN BOTH REWARDING AND HUMBLING.

Effective immediately, all sales are final. We can no longer accept returns, honor refunds, exchanges, rain checks, adjustments to previous orders nor offer insurance on outgoing packages. All of the normal tracking will be available on your orders as they depart. We will be offering great values on all of our remaining inventory.

Layout idea! July is National Ice Cream Month!

South Central Power publishes a magazine called Country Living. The July issue has an article called "Ice Cream Nation, Ohio's Favorite Summertime Treat" and talks about several Ohio locations for great treats.

- Ye Olde Mill in Utica
- Dietsch Brothers in Findlay
- Hartzler Family Dairy Ice Cream Shoppe in Wooster
- Jeni's splendid Ice Cream; Scoop Shops in Columbus, Cleveland and cities outside Ohio
- Tom's Ice Cream Bowl in Zanesville
- Taggarts Ice Cream Parlor and Restaurant in Canton
- Toft's Ice Cream Parlor in Sandusky
- Young's Jersey Dairy in Yellow Springs

Then there's Johnson's Family Ice Cream in Bexley and Whits' Frozen Custard in a few Central Ohio locations! And then there's DQ!!!

Road trip anyone? I hear there is a nice scrapbooking store in Findlay, too! Can you say GREAT combo?

Next time you indulge in this summer time treat, maybe even homemade (!) take some pictures and re-enjoy the moments in a layout.

HOME MADE

Wednesday, July 02, 2014

Scrap-n-Country's returning to Maudie Raber's house for our Saturday evening meal in an Amish home.

REMEMBER 2010?

Remember the chicken and beef?

The mashed potatoes? The peanut butter spread? The pie!!!

Remember the bridge? The granddaughter? The dish washer? The quality gardens?

Looking forward to a wonderful meal at a beautiful farm with a fun and caring

Amish family. Eat a small lunch!

Featured Product

Mudd Puddles for your beach pages and cards. Premixed in glue or free flowing sand/sea glass/shells $4

Compliments are loved!

Thanks!!!

This is the best retreat! I always get tons done and learn new techniques. Food and culture is great! Even get a little shopping done! This is awesome!

Missy (Amish Country Retreat)

I spent the weekend with some friends and we had the most amazing time. Noreen and Kim were just as accommodating as can be. She has TONS of stuff to use and her store took care of all of our needs. I would recommend it to anyone who wants a great place to scrapbook a few hours or a few days!!!

FROM MIDSUMMER
 ON DEEP DOWN BETWEEN THE LETTUCE
 PLANTS &
 BENEATH THE COOL SHADE OF BUSH BEANS
 GREEN FROGS
 SQUAT

AGAINST THE DAMP EARTH

SMALLER THAN A THUMBNAIL
 AT FIRST &

GOLD ON EITHER SIDE
 LIKE A DRUM
 MAJOR'S TROUSERS
 FROM THE TOP
 OF BULGED
 EYELIDS TO WHERE A TAIL
 ONCE WAS THEY GROW
 QUICKLY,
 EATING BUGS
 I SUSPECT,
 SO I NEVER DUST POISON
 ON THE BEANS
 OR LETTUCE - I MAY NEVER DECIDE TO KISS ONE
 BUT I'M NOT ABOUT TO RISK
 THE LIFE
 OF ANY PRINCE.

Delights of Summer

We can hear the frogs, peepers, and bull frogs in the ponds across the road from Scrap-n-Country. We also find toads under the leaves in our flower beds and along the edge between the grass and the garage slab. If I could get a picture (!) it would end up on a layout with this Ed Higgins poem.

Enjoy the summer life in your yard. We finally have dozens of lightening bugs and Kim says they remind him of his childhood. We both used to catch them and put them in jars with nail holes hammered into the lids so they could breathe. We put grass and sticks for their comfort. And...we let them go the next morning. I would almost bet money that you did too.

We've had a couple of hot air balloon sightings. There seem to be fewer baskets floating by this summer than usual. In the past we had one land behind the house, one across the street in a field, and another down the road IN the road.

My beloved turkey vultures are back but are disturbed by the building of the new home next to us. I love to watch them soar; their flight is glorious.

Last but certainly not least we enjoy the birds, groundhogs, raccoons, rabbits and any and all other wild life that stop by here. I still haven't seen a deer or a fox... but that's ok. The deer aren't good for the alpacas and a fox would worry me.

Happy Independence Day!
